Please list any physical or medical conditions including allergies your child may have that might require special needs or attention:

The Pasadena Community Church Basketball League is a way for your child to grow with Jesus through basketball. Every practice and game will be a positive learning experience in the growth of your child. Everyone connected with the league, including family and friends of the players, will conduct themselves in a manner to create a positive learning experience. In order to foster a more loving community and to ensure their safety, all children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. We ask that any comment be made in a positive spirit to help everyone involved in the league to grow through encouragement. Any negative criticism should be made in private with proper league personnel,

*I agree to follow the above terms to the best of my God given ability. Parent/Legal Guardian
