PRAYER REQUESTS

Those who mourn the loss of Margaret Mackey (Jan 11)

If a family member or church friend is in the hospital, please contact the church: 381-2499 or barbarap@pccumc.org. Because of HIPAA laws we no longer know if someone is in the hospital unless you supply us with their proper name (not a middle or nickname) and what hospital they are in.

Submit your Prayer Request by placing it in the offering plate, any Prayer Box located on the campus, bringing it to the church office or emailing to barbarap@pccumc.org.

SERMON NOTES

How well do I listen?

1. When I talk with others, my mind is completely absorbed by what they are saying and it doesn't wander.
2. In a conversation, I hold my comments until the other person is finished talking, even though my comments may have direct relevance to what he or she is saying.
3. I do not let interruptions, like ringing phones or people walking by, distract my attention from what the person is saying.
4. I consistently keep eye contact with the person I'm talking to.
5. I make certain I avoid the mind-reading syndrome. That's where I determine what I believe the person is thinking without listening carefully to what the person is actually feeling and saying.
6. When I talk with someone, I have a better recollection of what they said as opposed to what I said.
7. I listen without judging or being critical.
8. I listen to the other person's view, even if it differs from mine.
9. I don't stop listening even if I'm fairly certain I know what the person is going to say.
10. I do not finish the other person's sentence, because I recognize that doing so is the same as stepping on their feet.
11. I make it a practice not to interrupt.
12. In a discussion, clearly more than half of my time is spent in listening rather than talking.
13. I'm careful to avoid anything that provides a negative connotation: raising an eyebrow, looking away, rolling my eyes, behaving restlessly, slumping, drumming my fingers, swishing my foot, etc.
